On March 9th of this year 48 year old David J Haworth was arrested for one count each of Burglary and Attempted Rape and two counts of Sexual Abuse 1. Haworth was accused of entering the room of an 84 year old female in a retirement center and sexually abusing her.

Haworth was subsequently released from jail after posting 10% of his $250,000 bail and signing a release agreement not to leave the state.

On June 22nd Haworth was turned back by Canadian authorities at a point near Port Hill, Idaho when he tried to enter Canada in violation of his release agreement. The U.S. Border Patrol detained Haworth while his court status was being investigated. Upon being informed of Haworths attempts to flee into Canada to avoid prosecution, a Washington County Circuit Court Judge signed a warrant charging Haworth with violating his release agreement and authorizing him to be held on 2 million dollars bail. Boundary County Idaho authorities took custody of Haworth and are holding him pending his extradition back to Oregon.

After Haworths original arrest he was ultimately indicted on (2) counts of Burglary 1, (1) count of Attempted Rape and (3) counts of Sexual Abuse 1.
